Council Turns Down Hill Excavation Permit Request

Albany City Council Monday night unanimously denied an application of Bessemer Securities Corporation for an excavation permit to build a road on Albany Hill south of Cerrito creek.

Many Albany Hill residents attended the meeting to express fears that the road would create increased traffic on their streets, would take away property from the Orientation Center for the Blind and would in itself be dangerous because the proposal was for a 28-foot wide roadbed in one area, among other objections.

When all was said and done, it appeared that granting the request would only benefit either El Cerrito or Richmond. At 9:50 p.m., the public hearing was closed and Vice Mayor H. F. Call and Mayor Richard Clark ticked off their lists of "findings of fact" before the 5-0 vote on Call's motion to deny.

Call's proposed resolution requesting property tax relief and reform was referred to City Attorney Lawrence D. Saler, who will have it ready for vote next Monday.

Two ordinances were passed to print (see legal) and a resolution designated the finance director as agent for social security.

Councilmen discussed the forthcoming election, which may have to be set later than May 20. A special meeting at 7:30 Tuesday, March 11, was called for Council, pension board and uniformed employees.

Yield signs on Washington at Pomona, Ramona, Carmel and San Carlos will be replaced with stop signs.

Mayor Clark was authorized to proclaim March as American Legion Month.

Police Sgt. Jim Harris will be reimbursed for a pair of uniform pants damaged in an arrest Feb. 8. Kathie Zahn will receive a note from Mayor Clark thanking her for her efforts in bringing better bus service to Albany residents.

E. J. Rooney's request that the City-School Recreation committee be abolished and the Recreation commission be allowed to make recommendations for a joint after school recreation program was approved.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:45 p.m. in memory of Arnold Pope.

Funeral Today

ARNOLD POPE SHOT DOWN BY OAKLAND ROBBERS

Arnold Pope and his family.

Arnold Eugene Pope, 45-year-old father of four who lived at 1227 Washington, was shot and killed by three men in an apparent holdup attempt in Oakland last Thursday.

FAST Courses Begin

ALBANY FIRE CHIEF Gerald Browne, Mrs. Audrey Whiteman, Red Cross safety committee member and Albany Fire Captain Raul Miranda look over the schedule of First Aid Special Training (FAST) classes to be conducted in fire stations in March, Red Cross Month.

Red Cross First Aid At Fire Stations in March

As a special public service during March, "Red Cross Month," the Berkeley-Albany chapter, American Red Cross, is cooperating with the fire departments of Berkeley, Albany and Kensington to offer a series of Standard First Aid courses in all community fire stations.

"This First Aid Special Training (FAST) program is designed to make it especially convenient for everyone in the community to learn how to help himself and others when they need help fast," say Chief Gerald Browne of the Albany Fire Department.

"You can improvise much of the equipment you need to give emergency care, but you can't improvise the knowledge and skills you don't have," the Chief said. "That's why I'm urging everyone to sign up for a FAST course at his neighborhood fire house this month." To enroll, call the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross chapter (845-1430) now.

Youth groups working for first aid merit badges or "honors" will be welcome to attend the classes. Persons who are at least 14 years old, or have completed the 8th grade, will receive Red Cross Standard First Aid certificates upon successful completion of the 10-hour course.

The first aid class in Albany will meet from 7-9:30 p.m. on March 3, 10, 17 and 24 at Albany Fire Station No. 1 at 1001 Marin Ave. Captain Raul Miranda will be the instructor. Monday evening classes will also be held at Berkeley Fire Station No. 2 at 2029 Berkeley Way.

Nancarrow-Keck Wedding

Lt. and Mrs. Gary Lee Keck (Anna Edith Nancarrow)

Formal rites at St. Patrick's church in San Jose united in marriage Anna Edith Nancarrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robert Nancarrow of Mill Valley, and Army Lt. Gary Lee Keck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lee Keck of Albany.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin gown with empire styling and long train. It was trimmed with lace and seed pearls. Her veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of organza roses and leaves of seed pearls. She carried an arrangement of stephanotis and white roses.

All bridal attendants wore red velvet empire style gowns with white fur trim on three-quarter sleeves. They carried stephanotis and pink roses.

Miss Joanna Miller of San Jose, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Honer and Miss Carol Keck, both of Albany and twins, sisters of the bridegroom; and Miss Heide Conner of Oakland.

Kevin William Keck, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Nancarrow, brother of the bride, Capt. Roger L. Paine of San Francisco, childhood friend of the bridegroom, and William Berry of Concord.

A champagne reception for more than 200 guests followed in the Cardinal room of Mariani's restaurant in Santa Clara. The couple left on a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Grand Canyon and Carlsbad Caverns. They will live in Lawton, Okla., where Gary is assigned to the U.S. Army Artillery and Missile school at Fort Sill. A 1961 graduate of Albany High school, he attended the University of California at Berkeley and is a June, 1968, graduate of San Jose State. He graduated in January, 1969, from Officers' Candidate school and received his commission in the U.S. Army at Fort Sill, Okla.

His bride, a graduate of Tamalpais High school in Mill Valley is completing her senior year at San Jose State. She will continue her studies in Lawton.

COUNCIL'S ACTION a week ago to prohibit top police or fire officials from working at the racetrack during the same hours they are drawing pay from the city has caused a little fur to fly. Police Chief Ralph Jensen reports that only one such person, Inspector Art Smith, works at the track part time. For 15 years, he has worked a split shift at the police station and spent a portion of the afternoon at the track, but the hours do not overlap. He puts in his eight-hour day for the city at the station. Jensen never goes to the track and no fireman draws pay from the track at any time, the chief said.

THE FASHION SHOW Friday to raise money to send the seniors to Disneyland was a smashing success, we hear. Senior parents pulled the show together in about six weeks, were delighted when they went over quota financially. Our phone rang constantly Saturday as friends told us we'd won second prize, of matching luggage. It's beautiful.

Copy of letter to:
Mrs. Kathie Zahn
Albany, California

As you know, effective March 2 we will inaugurate extensive improvements in service for Albany residents by operation of additional "F" line trips via Solano Avenue through to San Pablo Avenue.

We would like to thank you for the part you had in this development through submittal of your original suggestions and your continued interest in such service. We appreciate the help which you so kindly gave.

This new operation will be on a trial basis for a year, and we would, of course, welcome any assistance you may be able to give toward encouraging use of the augmented service.

Very truly yours,
ALAN L. BINGHAM
AC Transit

Copy of letter to:
Albany City Council:

It gives me great pleasure to report to you, that starting March 2, 1969, the citizens of Albany will enjoy EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENT in service on the "F" Berkeley-San Francisco line. It was NOT EASY, gentlemen, to PERSUADE ??? the people at AC Transit to see the INJUSTICE they did to the citizens of Albany by providing ONLY a "TOKEN" service on the F-line, while Berkeley's at Solano and The Alameda was overabundant.

From Monday through Friday All Day

Leaving Solano-San Pablo were 33 F-buses, while in Berkeley at Solano/Alameda 96 buses would leave. Coming back from San Francisco to Solano/The Alameda there would be 100 buses available, while ONLY 39 of these F-buses would come into Albany.

On Saturday All Day

Thirty-four F-buses would leave from San Pablo, Albany while by comparison 79 F-buses left from Solano/The Alameda. Coming from San Francisco there were 81 F-buses going to Solano/The Alameda while ONLY 39 of them, WIDELY SPACED IN TIME, would come to San Pablo, Albany.

Sunday Was Even Worse

Leaving from San Pablo, there were all day and night ONLY 12 F-buses for Albany citizens available, while for Berkeley 59 F-buses left from Solano/The Alameda. Between the hour of 11:37 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. the citizens of

Real Estate Conference
In Oakland Tomorrow

Berkeley Board of Realtors and the California Real Estate association will co-sponsor an educational and sales conference for local Realtors and salesmen in Oakland at Goodman Hall Thursday, March 6.

"New Horizons in Real Estate Salesmanship" is the theme of the conference, according to Jack Setzer. "This conference is conducted to enable Realtors and salesmen to learn new techniques of listing and selling real estate," he said. "The CREA has put together an outstanding group of speakers with emphasis on listing. The conference will not only benefit the Realtors and real estate salesmen who attend, but the clients they serve in their communities."

H. Jackson Pontius, executive vice president of CREA, reported that one of the most sought-after speakers on salesmanship in the nation, Dr. Herbert True of South Bend, Indiana, will be the featured speaker at the conference.

Dr. True is a noted showman, humorist, and philosopher and a former professor of marketing at Notre Dame University. He is known to audiences throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

According to Don Roberts of Whittier, chairman of the CREA Education committee, a new book published by the association which presents comprehensive research, case histories, and techniques on listing real estate will be distributed to everyone attending the conference. He added that an examination will be given at the close of the one-day conference and those who receive passing grades will receive one unit of credit toward the Graduate, Realtors Institute (GRI) educational certificate and designation.

Eighteen units of credit, he said, plus three years' experience as a member of a local board of Realtors are required to obtain the certificate.

ALBANY WOMAN BEATEN FRIDAY ASSAULT

Lena Sorensen, 65, of 612 Cerrito was beaten by two Negro women in an attempted purse snatch in the street on Friday afternoon. She traveled 400 block of Avenue about 2 p.m. last ed by Albany Police Chief Ralph Jensen and a Berkeley inspector. In the car at the time of the arrest were the purse and belongings of a Berkeley woman, who was robbed after the Albany attack.

They were brought back to Albany jail and held on $13,000 bail for attempted robbery and assault with a deadly weapon.

Mrs. Sorensen told police she was walking to the store when a white car pulled into a driveway ahead of her. She walked into the street around the car when the girl got out on the driver's side and greeted her. When she responded, the girl tried to grab her purse.

"I wouldn't let go," she said, "so the girl hit me over the head. Then the other girl got out of the passenger side and hit me on the right arm and shoulder."

Residents in the area got towels to stem the flow of blood from her head wounds. She was treated at Herrick hospital.

Other Albany officers involved were Inspector Art Smith, Sgt. Mel Boyd and Officer Chester Seibert. Berkeley and El Cerrito officers assisted.

ANNUAL AFS BREAKFAST AT CORNELL SUNDAY

The annual American Field Service ham 'n pancakes breakfast will be served to all comers Sunday, March 9, from 8:30 to 12:30 in the Cornell school cafeteria, 919 Cornell Ave., Albany.

Again this year, local American Field Service committee members have volunteered their time and talent as chefs, waiters and scullery maids to raise money to bring a foreign high school student into an Albany home for a year, according to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murrow, Albany American Field Service chapter, co-presidents.

Breakfast guests will meet Daniela Neve from Belgium and her Albany "family," the Lee Kecks, 1223 Portland. Guests will also welcome home Lynn Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Errol Fletcher, 707 Gateview, who returned Feb. 15 from her year-and-a-day stay in Salto, Uruguay, as the "daughter" of the Berro family. As part of the traditional breakfast festivities, Danny and Lynn, as well as other foreign students attending El Cerrito and Berkeley High schools will present a continuous international information program.

American Field Service International Scholarship program is an outgrowth of the American Field Service ambulance corps serving in France during World Wars I and II. Field Service volunteers wanted to develop better understanding among peoples of many nations, and, to that end, began student exchanges. Initially, the program was conceived for college-age students, but after much experimentation, the project was developed into a program for high school juniors and seniors.

To date, more than 30,000 students have traveled throughout the Northern and Southern Hemispheres to learn the languages and customs of another country while living as a family member in a foreign home and attending high school in that country.

In 1956, the Albany Rotary club, under the presidency of William Woolworth, initiated the local American Field Service program. During that year, the Woolworths were host "parents" for the first Albany exchange student, Sigurd Toppel from Germany. Since 1956, 13 foreign students have become temporary "sons" and "daughters" of Albany families, and coincidentally, 13 Albany youngsters have traveled to foreign lands to become part of the "larger family of man."

Albany Eastern Star 550 sewing circle will meet at the Albany Temple, March 6, at 10 a.m.

Application of Environmental Improvement to City of Albany

by William L. Garren

Historically Albany should hark back to 1956 when the then socio-business group on Solano Avenue, Solano Avenue Merchants association first promulgated the thought of a fine bi-secting thoroughfare planted, lighted, facelifted. Enthusiasm without funds, legislative enabling acts and a local treasury surplus stifled every attempt to create the Solano Avenue Beautification plan.

Not until the national consciousness was roused to the plight of our cities, the obsolescence, the ghettos, the minority poverty, pollution, that legislative bodies moved to assist, California somewhat led the way with the early "Parking Assistance Authority Act," then the "Public Mall Assistance Act," however, these acts helped some larger cities through public bonding. Medium and smaller cities of the nation were without the funding-financing possibilities to implement local plans.

The egg was stood on end when PG&E, at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, cracked the shell and quietly announced that it could, without cost to property owners of the city, remove the overhead wires and poles and underground its transmission lines on Solano Ave. Here was the meeting of the flint and the stone that sparked the Chamber of Commerce to immediately set to work to beautify Solano Avenue.

Meanwhile, the whole score of legislation put into effect by Congress to aid the cities toward remodeling blighted areas was amplified to include beautification. As Mayor Richard Clark and Councilmen returned from conventions of city governments, they were imbued with the idea of getting on the band wagon and asking for federal funds.

At that point, with Albany's application for federal funds, it was required that the city have a general "citywide beautification program." To this end, Albany Beautification and Improvement committee was outlined through cooperation of the city and then Chamber of Commerce President Joe Dagna. It was appointed, including representatives of all governing commissions, zoning, planning, parks and recreation, traffic, public utilities, Chamber of Commerce, etc. Priority consideration was given to Solano Avenue.

Assistance was sought through citizen contacts to 11 senators and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who was largely responsible for the wave of public enthusiasm for national beautification.

After raised hopes for federal gifts, the Housing and Urban Development commission shifted emphasis from beautification to poverty, blight, minorities, etc., and set up a set of criteria. This placed Albany in a "highly improved" classification and not entitled to funds until metropolitan centers with those priorities were funded.

So here we stand with our bootstraps taut and going ahead toward lifting and improving the whole range of environment in Albany. This is the goal toward which the Albany Beautification and Improvement committee is dedicating its efforts for 1969.

An architect is providing plans for the planning committee, for Bay development, Parks and Recreation commission has under way the consideration of a professional landscape architectural firm to improve Albany's parks. The Lions club has started a fine tree planting program in cooperation with property owners on two streets. There have been requests to extend the fine public effort led by Carl MacWilliams, Tiny Kampe and others.

Bud Rooney, superintendent of parks and recreation, reports that requests for tree planting on private property far exceed the supply due to limited labor available. The general tree planting program is expected to move along on schedule soon, however, Mrs. Dario Meniketti of the commission, reported to the committee.

Jack Mahshi, landscape architect, is chairman of the B&I committee. At the January meeting, the committee passed a motion to ask the City Council to change the name of the group to include the word, "environmental," as a part of its overall citywide program for 1969. By Minnie Ingraham

The Inter-Club Council luncheon, which we were privileged to co-host on Tuesday, Feb. 25, went off smooth as silk, and it was good to have these fine people enjoy some leisure in our company.

Another happy event occurred on Thursday, Feb. 27, when we surprised a pair of faithful members, Mr. and Mrs. William Peters, on their golden wedding anniversary. Alerted by their charming daughter, Mrs. Shirley Roberts, who supplied a most delectable cake decorated with leaves of gold, we greeted the honored couple with the old faithful standby, "Here Comes the Bride," followed by a barrage of nostalgic honeymoon tunes. I'm sure those were tears of joy on Jessie's cheeks. Many of us were sharing her happiness.

We are somewhat saddened to report the absence of our devoted Nora Healey, who is recuperating at Herrick hospital from a broken hip. Our member-at-large, Harry Greenwood, is also away from us, temporarily we hope, due to an accidental fall. Our sincere condolences to Mae Drummond, one of our original little band, who was recently widowed.

The list for the OGLEBY party had to be closed because of lack of space. Our walls are not made of rubber, and we trust this entertainment will be so successful that we may continue to schedule a similar event once a month.

The trip for the month of

An award in memory of the late Paul Ralston will be one of seven awards and scholarships to be presented at the 11th annual concert and silver tea to be held under the auspices of the Alameda County branch, Music Teachers' Association of California, at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 9, at the Berkeley Piano club. Mary Cobb, Oakland vocalist, will be the recipient of the Ralston Memorial Award. Mr. Ralston, who lived in Albany on Marin Ave., was organist and former choirmaster of Piedmont Community Church, was a member of the association for many years, and was well known in the Bay Area for his work with the Loring Club, Treble Clef and Glee clubs of the University of California, Bohemian Club, Scottish Rite and many other musical organizations.

Six other young people will also be heard on the program, and will receive scholarships and awards as the result of auditions which have been held annually by the Scholarship committee of the Music Teachers. They are Karen Marchesi, Nina Stewart and Barbara Emerson, voice; and Monica Lau, Julie Jordan and Carol Cardwell, piano.

The scholarship program is made possible by contributions of friends and colleagues to the fund, and the local association has granted 49 awards and scholarships since it was started in 1968. Latvala-Marian Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell Marian (Cathy Arlene Latvala)

—Larimer Photo.

Lovely ceremonies in the Finnish hall in Berkeley united in marriage Cathy Arlene Latvala, daughter of Sylvia and Ted N. Latvala of Albany, and Robert Powell Marian, son of May and Vaughn R. Marian, Sr., of El Cerrito.

Dr. Fredd Stripp conducted the ceremonies before an arch of flowers. The crystal wine glass used for the wine glass ceremony belonged to the bride's grandmother.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of peau de soie with panels of re-embroidered lace on sides and bodice and on the detachable train. Her veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of seed pearls and lace and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were identically gowned in full length empire gowns of red velvet trimmed with satin and lace and matching red nets attached to red head bows. They carried cascades of white carnations and red camellias.

Chris Thomas of Albany was maid of honor. Miss June Pirie of Albany and Mrs. Michael Clark of Alameda were bridesmaids.

Vaughn R. Marian, Jr., of Sunnyvale, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Tom San born of Richmond and Doug Stephens of El Cerrito.

The bride's mother wore a pink embroidered georgette gown with beaded top. The mother of the bridegroom wore blue crepe with lace. Both had orchid corsages.

A champagne reception for 375 guests was held in the hall.

CATHOLIC LADIES

Catholic Ladies Aid Society of St. Ambrose Church will sponsor a card party Monday, March 10, in the parish hall, Gilman and Stannage, Berkeley. Refreshments will be served at noon, followed by whist. Mrs. Robert Speer is chairman.

Among guests was Raider Ben Davidson. Betty Louise Latvala, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. A five-tier wedding cake was placed on a table in front of a five by eight foot oil painting done by the bride's grandfather 38 years ago.

Mrs. Walter Sundman and Mrs. Orville Hendrickson, close friends of the bride's family, sang "Hawaiian Wedding Song" just before the ceremony. Bill Makinen played the wedding marches on an accordion. The bride's garter was handmade by Mrs. Dan Thomas and decorations were by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peterson.

Following a wedding trip to Yosemite, the couple is at home in Richmond. The bride, a 1966 graduate of Albany High school, is a secretary for Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. Her husband, El Cerrito High school graduate, is attending Cal State at Hayward.

Three Students Discuss Youth's Hopes, Fears At Lions Dinner Thursday

Are you one of today's adults harboring growing misgivings for modern youth?

Does militant conduct on campuses bring chills to the spine?

However, though you be one of those concerned, there is a question. Would you take an evening of your time to hear the other side?

If so, Albany Lions are providing that opportunity tomorrow evening at Serb's Restaurant, 1045 San Pablo Ave.

President J. Henry Kruse, of the local club will call the special dinner meeting to order promptly at 7:15 p.m.

Designated a ladies night, all interested are welcome. Dinner cost $3.

Highlighting the occasion, three Albany students will present talks on "The Hopes and Fears of Today's Youth."

The presentation is the local kick-off of California-Nevada Lions contest which will ultimately reward the winner with a $2,500 scholarship.

Past President Al Drozda will preside over the student program, with Lion Bill Savage assisting.

If you are a parent, the Lions feel this a must. If you're not, it might open the way to better communication with an age soon to govern.
